SIR PETER LAURIE, MAYOR.

1080300

AT a COURT of LORD MAYOR and ALDERMEN, held at GUILDHALL, London, this 7th day of May, 1833.

WILLIAM TAYLOR COPELAND, Esq. and Alderman, reports JOSEPH ADY, Citizen and Accountant, has just completed a work unparalleled for usefulness, and which has occupied him fifteen years to write, entitled, "A LIST OF ALL UNCLAIMED MONIES," containing the Names of One Million of Persons, entitled to ONE HUNDRED MILLIONS OF POUNDS Unclaimed Dividends, Legacies to Charities and Individuals, &c. &c. extracted from the Records in Chancery, the Bank, and various Will Offices, &c. and that his terms are most liberal, viz. "Fee returned when no benefit is obtained," therefore hopes the Court will patronize him.

On the motion of the Right Honourable SIR PETER LAURIE, Knt. Lord Mayor, seconded by SIR WILLIAM HEYGATE, Bart. it is agreed, that a VOTE OF THANKS is due to JOSEPH ADY, Esq. for his exertions as above. We unanimously deeming him worthy of our patronage, hereby, without solicitation on his part, or even his Knowledge, constitute ourselves his voluntary Referees, and advise all persons interested, to apply to him forthwith, particularly Assignees, Legatees, Executors, Administrators, and Relations of Intestates, and to set the example, hereby authorise our Chamberlain to pay him £1000, on his delivering a printed copy thereof, at the Library, Guildhall.
